

The Whitetail home design is a versatile one-story plan available in the Pinnacle community of new homes in Meridian ID. With a single-level layout and manageable size, the Whitetail is ideal for many buyers, from young singles and families to downsizing empty nesters.

A family room with a cozy fireplace is at the heart of the Whitetail's open-concept living areas. Stainless steel Bosch appliances ensure that the kitchen looks great and runs efficiently. The covered back patio is perfect for enjoying a cup of coffee or having dinner with friends.

At 2,125 square feet, this home is spacious enough for a den in addition to having three bedrooms, two baths, a mud room, and a separate laundry room. The main bedroom has a luxurious bath and its own door to the back patio. The handy door between the walk-in closet and the adjacent laundry room is a fun feature in the main bedroom. Across the hall, the den separates the two secondary bedrooms. Options for customizing the Whitetail include adding a third garage bay and extending the den by two feet.
