

With summer upon us, many people are taking the opportunity to redecorate their Meridian ID homes. If you're one of them, read on to find out what trends are hot this year in home décor.

Basketry

Inspired by the Boho trend, baskets are everywhere this year. But they're not just for storage anymore. You'll see basketry lightshades, wall art, lamp bases and even end tables. These items bring a natural, light touch to your casual living spaces.

Painted kitchen cabinets

Navy blue and dark gray or black are especially popular. For a lighter look, try painting just the island or the lower cabinets a dark color and paint the upper cabinets white or a lighter shade of the base color.

Dining rooms

With more people spending time at home, family meals are becoming more important. Having a dedicated dining room makes it easier to seat everyone together without crowding.

Houseplants

Bring the calming power of nature indoors with houseplants. They are available in an amazing variety of shapes and sizes. You can even have fully grown plants shipped to your home ready to decorate your space.

Luxurious Laundry Rooms

Who knew a laundry room would be a place where you'd actually want to spend some time? Well-designed built-in cabinets, high end appliances and stylish floors make laundry day more enjoyable than it's ever been.

When you move into a brand new home from Brighton Homes, you have the perfect opportunity to try out your favorite home décor trends. Check out our photo gallery to get inspiration from our own design team.

We build in three communities in the Meridian ID area. Bainbridge, Cadence and Century Farm. Bainbridge offers a wide range of lot sizes, plenty of amenities and a new elementary school coming soon. Cadence is a gated 55+ community for those who desire a low maintenance lifestyle. Century Farm is a relaxed neighborhood with outstanding amenities and beautiful surroundings.

Interest rates are at a historic low, making this a great time to get into a new home in one of these popular communities. Live chat with us or call 208-908-7533 to schedule your personal tour of our available Meridian ID homes.
