

As a long-time home builder in Meridian ID, we're familiar with all the great things the Treasure Valley has to offer. One of our favorite things to do is visit the local farmer's markets. We love shopping for fresh, local produce and knowing that we support our local farmers, artisans, and producers. Join us by visiting one or more of these markets throughout the season:

Nampa Farmer's Market

Saturdays 9 am - 1 pm April through October

Lloyd Square Park, Nampa

Everything sold here is grown or made within a 100-mile radius. You'll find fresh fruits and vegetables, prepared foods and baked goods, crafts, plants, and more. Watch a cooking demonstration, grab a bite to eat, and listen to live music as you shop from more than 90 vendor booths.

Capital City Public Market

Saturdays 9 am - 2 pm starting in April

1. 34th Street, Garden City

Capital City Public Market is the area's oldest outdoor farmer's market. They sell produce, plants, flowers, meats, handmade crafts and art, specialty foods, and more.

Boise Farmer's Market

Saturdays 9 am - 1 pm April to October

Shoreline Drive, Boise

This food-focused market offers walk-through, drive-through, and mobile options. Local food and agricultural products make up 95% of the offerings from 60+ vendors. Prepared food and beverages are available.

Eagle Saturday Market

Saturdays 9 am – 2 pm, May to October

Heritage Park, Eagle ID

You'll find a mix of produce, plants, flowers, live music, arts and crafts, specialty foods, and more here.

Meridian Farmers' Market and Bazaar

Saturdays 9 am – 1 pm April through September

Meridian Crossroads Shopping Center, Meridian ID

Visit the booths of more than 50 regional vendors in the shopping center parking lot. Produce, handmade items, prepared foods, and more are offered.

These farmers' markets are within easy reach of our Treasure Valley communities in Nampa, Boise, Meridian, and Eagle ID. Our communities feature EnergyStar-certified homes in the latest designs. We offer a range of lifestyles from 55+ patio homes to large estate homes. We're part of the Boise community and we believe in supporting our local businesses and producers.
